

Descending Abomination

Krisiun

Descending abomination - ethereal execution
Spiritual damned plague - infesting like a cancer
Transcending, decaying in my blood and spirit
Blackening suffocating, envenoming of my memories
Disturbed visions - heinous sights
Brought forth like sickening winds
I've called the nameless, cast dreadful spells
Now I'm tripping in my inner hell
Shadows of fallen ghouls - mental disarray
Charred corpses along my way
Echoes of howling, silent painful screams
Poison is flowing in my bloodstream
Blackened raging clouds above, lightning bolts whipping
the skies
Torrential acid rain is falling, burning my soul into the unknown
Now I'm on the road to the inferno of madness
As I walk over blood and broken glass
Blackened raging clouds above, lightning bolts whipping
the skies
Descending abomination - slumber of the undead
Descending abomination - blood-soaked nightmare
