

Ominous

Krisiun

Morning star - Surging beyond. In ominous skies
Sorrowful light - Shining for tragedy of paradise decayed
Season of plagues - Winter falls
Turning lives into specters
Blasting blows of toxic storms
Carried along terminal winds
Blackened rays of a decayed sun
Rays of death
Blessing the blind masses
Paradise now in flames
Dissect all nations for them to know
Heaven is a tale of this ungodly land
The savior is a lie - Sworn to save what can't be saved
