Rises from Black

Krisiun

Hell's bluster in your mind A boundless pain possesses you Eye gouged out Worms rises from your eyes Satan rips out your soul Satan ruler of your soul Abomination comes against you Your rottenness on crosses True suffer of death Look inside the demon eyes Black death leads your way Spreading death thru the empire Under the black Ride forever Immortality, rises from black Into the evil's domination Nothing remains in your corpse You'll be a ghoul Deep inside the hell's flame You'll be born from black
