

Shadows of Betrayal

Krisiun

Shadows of betrayal falling upon your soul
Bastard of fear, the end of your mission is drawing near Exalting a sickening race of cowards
Worm of submission - Sanctified treachery
Spreading filthy lies of conspiracy
Distill the poison of your filthy tongue
I'm coming to prove that you are mortally wrong
The sentence of your death in my murdering hands
I'm the unexpected guest right behind your back
I'm the serpent's coiling right around your neck
A serpent's embrace will seal your fate
I'm coming to prove that your world is fake
Dishonor entangled, submissions in vain
Salvation denied - Your salvation is pain Shadows of betrayal - The face of a sickening coward behind the veil
Shadows of betrayal - The stench of your own blood for you inhale
A guillotine of iron arms, strangling, traumatizing
Till you can't see, till you go blind, till you go paralyzed
A serpent's embrace, will crush your fate
Until black blood spray of your lacerated face
Shadows of betrayal falling upon your soul
Bastard of fear, the end of your mission is drawing near
Exalting a sickening race of cowards
Worm of submission - Sanctified treachery
Spreading filthy lies of conspiracy
Distill the poison of your filthy tongue
I'm coming to prove that you are mortally wrong
The sentence of your death in my murdering hands
I'm the unexpected guest right behind your back
I'm the serpent's coiling right around your neck
