

Slaying Steel

Krisiun

I pound the Gods hammer to crush the infidel,
I am the vindicator who cracks the whip onto your back.
I bring thorns and nails for your crown and for your cross,
I bear the forged sword to be thrust into your heart.
The scum you whispered to curse my name
Shall be told again upon your desecrated grave Your faith: I'll exterminate your fake existence your idols decapitated.
As you can only stand still, I bring a slaying ton of steel
For cowards who must be killed, I bring a slaying ton of steel.
