

Love Is All I Need

Kristian Leontiou

Come the evening in the silence
It will always try to catch you in a moment
I recall the time I tried to Understand the pain of angels
Hear me cry
Deep into the field of ashes
Broken feelings I remember
Pull me under
Steal the covers as the dust falls
Empty moments leave me restless
Hear me cry
Love is all I need
There above a twisted skyline
Seamless rumours I remember
Seem to linger
Up ahead a sea of faces
Start to cream a different story
Hear me cry
Im holding on to you
Trying all the time
Im holding out for you
But falling
Hear me cry
