Love Is All I Need

Kristian Leontiou

Come the evening in the silence It will always try to catch you in a moment I recall the time I tried to Understand the pain of angels Hear me cry Deep into the field of ashes Broken feelings I remember Pull me under Steal the covers as the dust falls Empty moments leave me restless Hear me cry Love is all I need There above a twisted skyline Seamless rumours I remember Seem to linger Up ahead a sea of faces Start to cream a different story Hear me cry Im holding on to you Trying all the time Im holding out for you But falling Hear me cry
