

Going To The Dance With You

Kristin Chenoweth

The rain may fall, the wind may blow, it may get down to 20 below,

I don't mind cause I'm going to the dance with you.

The rent's unpaid, the cupboards are bare, I won't cry, I won't despair, no,

I don't mind cause I'm going to the dance with you.

And when the orchestra plays so sweet and low, I'll take your hand and hope you know

How I wish the dance would never end, and how I give my love forever.

And I'll be yours, please be mine, you have made my world divine

Cause I'm in love, I'm going to the dance with you.

And when the orchestra plays so sweet and low, I'll take your hand and hope you know

How I wish the dance would never end, and how I give my love forever.

And I'll be yours, please be mine, you have made my world divine

Cause I'm in love, I'm going to the dance with you.

I'll be yours, please be mine, you have made my world divine

Cause I'm in love, I'm going to the dance with you.
