

Listerine

Kristin Hersh

Listerine covers your tracks
Doesn't do shit for the facts

I'm lying on the couch, scary memories fill my mouth
How did I love a breaking thing?
How did I sleep through a kidnapping?
How'd I trust a band who'd leave me, one by one?

I only wanted the spark
I only wanted your hearts
It's hard, it's hard and stupid
I'm the one who let you do it

I only wanted the high
Wasn't much more to my life

I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground

I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground

I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground

I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
I couldn't wait to come down
There's nothing here but the ground
