

Some Lovin'

Kristine W.

You're so ungrateful
Why do you hurt me so
I tried to please you
I thought I'd never let you go
But all you've given me
Is all misery and pain
You don't love me
You took my heart and love in vain

At first I was a fool
I never thought you'd be this cruel
You turned around and hurt me
The things you made me do
And all heartache I went through
This love of ours is ending

If you want some lovin'
Gotta get some lovin'
Well you need some lovin'
Gotta share your lovin'
Gotta feel that lovin'
Inside my heart
Know that you are mine

Get some lovin'
You want some
Get some
Get some lovin'
You need some
Get some
Get some lovin'
You want some
Get some
Get some lovin'
You need some
Get some
Get some lovin'
You want some
Get some
Get some lovin'
You need some
Get some

You tried to play me
But I wouldn't play your games
You tried to tell me
That everything is still the same
I'm going crazy
I don't know whatever to do
Don't think its easy
No its not easy leavin' you

Just like my momma said
If you ever get misled
Forget about your lover
You must always keep your pride
If you want to survive

There will always be another

Get some lovin'

You want some

Get some

Get some lovin'

You need some

Get some

Get some lovin'

You want some

Get some
