

Disconnect

Kristinia DeBarge

Another day of no more you
I'm giving everyone attitude
I'm losing air I'm slowly dying
Kill me if I cant be around you
I don't wanna be too dramatic
Breaking up is problematic
I don't even know what to do

But all I know is that I'm missing you
I don't care bout nothing else but you
I'm like two steps (two steps from losing it)
One more step I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead
No I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to baby

I try to deal but it don't make sense
I cant believe this is happening
I'm losing tears
Living this life
If u were here
Im sure they would drown you
(no)i dont wanna make it sound so tragic
(no)i believe we stil got magic
I just need to know you do too

Two steps
Two steps I'm losing it
No I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to baby

You better not give up
You know that you cant
I love you too much for this to end
You gotta come through boy
I'm counting on you boy
You know what to do boy
You should call a girl up and save her life
Tell her you're not goin' let her die
No way that's gonna happen tonight

But all I know is that im missing you
I don't care bout nothing else but you
I'm like two steps (two steps from losing it)
One more step I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead

Two steps
Two steps I'm losing it
No I really don't think I'll make it without you
Not about to baby

And all I know is that I'm missing you
I don't care bout nothing else but you
I'm like two steps (two steps from losing it)
One more step I disconnect
Feel like I might as well be dead
