

If I Ever Go

Krizz Kaliko

The following is a list of things to do
If I ever go
Followed by, a list of people I love in my book of life
So if you're listenin'
Party for your boy
If I ever go
Big Krizz Kaliko

Now I Krizz Kaliko hear bein' the sound mind and body
Duly command you to party
And toast to that guy
That made ya see fat guys
In a different light
Leap with the beat when he touched the mic
Now listen closely cuz I won't repeat myself
And if you're close to me
Peep in and a keep a peace for yourself
I make it easy if a people grievin' and livin' in hell
Jesus got me sleepin' peacefully
Livin' somewhere else
I ain't got much
Some cars and some jewels
And some fools
Who love me
Fans that's just waitin' to hug me
A wife and a son
Who I'm absent from
And my mama who raised
To be just what I've become (Krizz Kaliko!)
You couldn't forget me if you tried to
This is for all my people to write to
And to my sisters and my nephews
Uncle Chris ain't left you
Cuz through my music
I feel like I can bless you

Life don't last forever no
If I was to ever go (if I ever go)
Remember, (if I ever leave) I love you (if I ever go)
If I was to ever leave
Something you done say to me (if I ever go)
Remember, (if I ever leave) that I love you
(that's what you should know)

Crystal I know you missin' me badly
That picture that boy be pointing to
Pick it up and kiss daddy
Cuz I ain't ain't far
Baby, I'm right by your side
Think of me and close your eyes
I knew that I would go first
The only reason I'm even writing this verse
Is just to ease the pain
I know that it hurts
I'm always thinkin' the worst
She gotta go on
You can you can go on

And date him in the beyond (and I ain't gonna hate no)
And teach him 'bout his daddy
And how he was a fool he's already funny
He'll probably be one too
Or an athlete, a musician
Growing up boy you listen
You getting big keep him out the kitchen
Listen
And G O D free me
And let me B E
And bury me a C E
Spark up a T R E E
And cheers to the guy
As you're gettin' high
For an angel of a man livin' in the sky

Life don't last forever no
If I was to ever go (if I ever go)
Remember, (if I ever leave) I love you (if I ever go)
If I was to ever leave
Something you done say to me (if I ever go)
Remember, (if I ever leave) that I love you
(that's what you should know)
