

Mama's Intro (God's Order)

Krizz Kaliko

I would not have ordered these for you
The rap, the music, the genre in which you create
The vitiligo, the anxiety, the harshness of life, the struggles
, the worlds in which you move
But (God) God ordered, and it made you beautiful to me, your family, your friends, and fans, many of whom have uttered to me:
"Krizz Kaliko saved my life, with his visions, truthfulness, experience, and talents"
Go into all the world and make a difference, Krizz Kaliko
With your soulful reality creations and genuine genius performances in the key of life
(God) God ordered...obey...GO!
