

Strange

Krizz Kaliko

Breathe deeply my friend
You're normal take it easy
You're only strange you know

It ain't the same
When no one remembers your name
And nobody knows where you came from
And they don't applaude you
They only know you
They only know your strange
And nobody knows who to blame and
Everyone knows it's the same so
They don't applaude you
They only know you

Cause I'm a little heavy-er
And I never thought the industry would let me in er
And they know I am no beginner
So I eat a rabbit like it's my dinner (Kali)
And I used to get stares from the pair of eyes
Man I'm not gonna get them paralyzed
We sing clinge the thing is I am sterilized

So whitch way is he goin
Ball to the fall every fall in a hole and
I won't stop even at all till I'm am known
The world so cold I make them fall with a quote (ok)
Spider caves are rhymes vet I'm next (ok)
But only pretty boys would get laid but I'm sex (ok)

Everybody love the guy the thing can't bend down
So if you got your chin down and
If anybody can come in and kill and gut the haters so now
Kod and seepage make them so their cleavage freakish
Maybe they bust spin out the bus
