

To Pieces

Kryoburn

welcome you are to this world of deceit locked in addiction that makes you complete descending deception upon you all tortured with pleasure left only to fail vision of ecstasy a painful delight failed again was your last attempt to make everything right longing for the one thing that will set you free only deceived again by false security

two pieces
i have become
two pieces

i lost myself into the darkness where am i when i have felt this pain unending eternal nightmare dismay in this, the darkness it pulls you away control the end ! control all ! looking back watching your dreams dissolve

i have become
two pieces

fuck off
you give your demons to me and i take them from you your pain is washed away your life is taken from you
fuck off
