

Kiss Your Life Goodbye

Krypteria

So it's you again, fool, you're a stupid little thing Who really picked a bab bab day to irritate the king you challenged my existence much to my charging I pity you 'cause your future's looking extraordinarily grim

So you climbed the highest mountain even tried to catch the stars?
Well I'm quite impressed but that don't mean
I won't rip out your heart
I will never fall to no-one,
you don't seem to understand
Let alone to such a sorry little man

Boy you better kiss your life goodbye
In a minute you will face eternal fire
You best believe it, I really mean it
In hell you're gonna fry - bye bye
Don't you see that your rebellious ass is mine
You best believe it, I really mean it, kiss your life goodbye

Take your final breath now, say farewell and be my guest And witness how my bloodstained sword will open up your chest Get ready for rellease, yes you will sense a touch of steel But I seriously doubt you will appereciate the feel

So you climbed the highest mountain even
tried to catch the stars?
Well I'm quite impressed but that don't mean
I won't rip out your heart
I will never fall to no-one,
you don't seem to understand
Let alone to such a sorry little man

Boy you better kiss your life goodbye
In a minute you will face eternal fire
You best believe it, I really mean it
In hell you're gonna fry - bye bye
Don't you see that your rebellious ass is mine
You best believe it, I really mean it, kiss your life goodbye

I've had enough of all this noble stuff
So someone soon will lose his head Spared my hate at the fateful gate
Then I'll drown your mates in a sea of red

Boy you better kiss your life goodbye
In a minute you will face eternal fire
You best believe it, I really mean it, in hell you're gonny fry you'll die, you'll die, you'll die, say goodbye

Boy you better kiss your life goodbye
In a minute you will face eternal fire
You best believe it, I really mean it
In hell you're gonna fry - bye bye
Boy you better kiss your life goodbye
Don't you see that your rebellious ass is mine
You best believe it, I really mean it, kiss your life goodbye
