

I'm trapped under ice, my veins about to burst - all shattered broken empty and scared I honestly don't know what frightens me worse - me going under or you not being there
I thought you'd remember the promise you made - I am scared
To never leave me all alone in the rain - so scared
But it seems to me like you never ever told me the ugly truth - misled
Excuse for not understanding about being a fool

I'm so lost where are you when your supposed to save me and mak e sure that I will make it through alive Lost and wait for you the one who once betrayed me only to tel l me everything will be fine Seems like my hopes are only a joke away - cause I've never bee n lost all the way

My sould hase been flogged, crucified out there - ever since yo u bailed I've run all out of tears I honestly can't tell you what's harder to bear - me slowly die ing or you not being here
I thought you'd remember the promise you made - I am scared
To never leave me all alone in the rain - so scared
But it seems to me like you never ever told me the ugly truth -
