

The Way To Begin

Krystal Meyers

Dear God
It's me again down here
Don't wanna sound insincere
I'm lost
Sometimes you're so unclear
What can I do?
I'm feeling so far from you

Frustrated
Irritated
Disconnected from it all
The weight of the world
Has pushed me to the wall

I surrender
To you I'm giving in Come take me
Save me
I want to start again
I'll open my broken heart
'Cause I've reached the end
And you are the way to begin

I've seen a million empty smiles
Living in denial
I don't wanna live like that
Where nothing's real
I hate how it is to feel

Frustrated
Irritated
Disconnected from it all
I'm breaking
I'm aching for something beautiful

I surrender
To you I'm giving in
Come take me
Save me
I want to start again
I'll open my broken heart
'Cause I've reached the end
And you are the way to begin

All the riches in this world
Couldn't fill this great big hole
It takes something so much more
Only you can take me
You can make me whole

I surrender
To you I'm giving in
Come take me
Save me
I want to start again
