Funnyman

Kt Tunstall

Locked inside your head Do you realize the things you said Never made sense?

We can sit here and laugh But we don't know the half of it, In your defense

We've been talking a while And it seems to me each time you smile Lights are coming on But they don't burn too strong And they won't stay for long And then they're gone again

Funnyman, gotta try to be something wonderful Funnyman, listening to the world turning on its sail Turn it into a brand new universe Funnyman could never be anything else.

Do you remember that night When I had to play your angel Saving your soul? Even though you were holding on tight A part of you was taken by the demons below

When no one to lose Said you feel like a bruise On a beautiful body. And all the damage you do Is so honest and true I don't want to feel sorry for you
