

Through the ceiling
They really mean it
She's in Alcatraz
He don't walk it
And she just talks it
And nothing's left unsaid

Bail out I said bail out
And don't look down
Bail out, its only the ground

Under my floor
He's a warlord
And she wants out
'Cause when she talks it
He distorts it
And the highway's in her head

Bail out I said bail out
And don't look down
Bail out, its only the ground

And the highway's in her head
Bail out I said bail out
And don't look down
Bail out, its only the ground
