

Drop In The Sea

Kula Shaker

Questions unfolding like books and their pages
They just keep on turning for me
And I keep on asking,
Why every question will somehow relate back to me

Oh, I was told by a Knight of the Sun,
That wisdom could set people free
Be content in your questions
And may I just mention

You're only a drop in the sea
Direction revolving
These questions I'm solving but nobody hears what I say
My answers unspoken of sweetest emotion,

Believe how I feel today
Just believe how you feel today
