

Only Love

Kula Shaker

You want some time. you want your pace of mind
Only love will take you there
You want the past, you wanted everything
Only love will take you there
Only love will take you there

Cracks on the pavement preying upon your mind
Only love will take you there
You want a new life, a little happiness
Only love will take you there
Only love will take you there

Cos there's no time to wait for, the world ain't fair
Only your love will take you there
Yes, there's no time to waste, say a simple prayer
Only your love will take you there
Only Love

One heart, one direction
Only love will take you there
And if your're searching for the Mighty one
Only love will take you there
Only love will take you there

Darling you can take your chances, make like you don't care
But all your fairytale romances, lead you to despair

Only love will take you there
Only love will take you there
Only love
