

Hate Decision

Kurhaus

what you call life
is never ending dying
you fear death
but it's your redemption

you sold yourself
to a system based on greed your not my friend
i want to see you bleed...now

so i decide to hate you

your world's a grave
your life means death
but i want to live
i still believe

if you ever believed in life then you have stopped if you ever had dreams seems like you gave'em up...now

can't take back my hate decision can't take it back, won't take it back your suburban fascism makes me wanna smash your face i feel my head explode

why are you so f**king stupid?
