

Every Once In A While

Kurt Nilsen

Now that you see who I am,
Are you pleased with your catch?
Is there any regret?
Or is life just perfect?

And now that you found out my weakspot
Has it made you sure?
Or do you want more?
Of lifes expectation

Oh it makes me wonder now
Why I get insecure, and you get scared
Oh it makes me wonder now...

We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we glow again
We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we understand...

Nobody's perfect unless you've seen 'em around
I feel like I'm bound
To fear and deception
I can learn how to treat you good
If you could teach me
Not to give up...
And I'll do the same for you

Oh it makes me wonder now
Why I get insecure, and you get scared
Oh it makes me wonder now...

We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we glow again
We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we understand...

Let the good times come, and the bad ones to
Would we want to be without it?
Let us talk it throught
And now time, aaah, aaah, aahah aaah

We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we glow again
We fall down, every once in a while
Every once in a while, we understand...

We understand...

We fall down... Though we understand
Fall down... though we understand
