You had it all my day, you had it all
You had it all my day
Each morning we marry,
It's just the most gorgeous of days
I know you'll never run away!
You met a young man who was a wild child who harmonizes keys in his droning mind
Saxophone sings from inside his head cryin'

I know you'll never run away

I'm living all the time, thanks cause your mine You turn my dying days away Each day we carry on like believers and lovers Though there are others who would rather run away

Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey man If you wanna hear a secret ...

Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey man Pay pay pay close attention

I know you'll never run away

Holding you all night through to the dawn You turn my dying days away My steady diet of high on love Then taking dope to cope, had to come down sometime

Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey man Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey man Pay pay pay close attention

I know you'll never run away
