Wrong Or Right

I don't want to be your leader I don't want to let you down And I don't even need to see you Turn your life around

Are you running away? Cause someone told you never That you're always gonna tread the wrong road Are you running away? Could my love do you better? Cause there's something that I need to let you know

If you're looking for a place to hide, it's alright I will always try and look the other way And if you're ever caught between the lines, wrong or right We are one and I will always keep you safe

Back into the habit I see it in your eyes Gone through all the motions It's hard to recognize

That you're running away And and can't escape forever From the memories you tried to leave behind We could've found a way We could've been in it together So I'm reaching out and here's the reason why

If you're looking for a place to hide, it's alright I will always try and look the other way And if you're ever caught between the lines, wrong or right We are one and I will always keep you safe
