

Dear Dad

Ky-Mani Marley

Yo this is the letter

Dear god I have a letter here from me to dad and I want to let you know, might be little sad

Dear dad I really didn't get to know you,

And sometimes I sit and wondering it makes me blue.

There's one memory that stays on the back of my mind,

And this memory got me thinking 'bout you all the time...

Woow I swear I miss you so

And I wish that you was here to see your boys grow.

In case your wondering,

Mommy she's doing fine

And she tell me stories 'bout you poppa all the time.

So when I'm down and out 'n all the others feelin' blue,

All I do daddy daddy is think of you.

The thoughts are 'lone

Erase my fears and dry's my tears, I'm just writing to let you know someone cares

Ya luv ya really really luv ya

Daddy I miss you I miss you and I know my brothers and sister do to

Hell I luv ya really really luv youuu

And I know you gave your love to the people,

And some of whom you thought you coulda trust, they deceived you

But the trail brings another day, at least that what my momma say.

And then,

When I'm through I place this letter in the bible,

And I gon' pray to Jah to sun is the shine brooze.

Told ya 'liver you this letter, lord, it will make me feel much better

Dear god I have a letter here form me to dad and I want to let you know

Might be little sad

P.s so much thing in life to know and so much things to say,

But I'm gon' safe it, cause I know we'll be together some day.

I'm just writing to let you know someone cares,

And to let you know you left the whole world in tears

Woow... daddy I luv ya I luv ya really really luv ya daddy I miss you I miss you, and I know my brothers and sisters do to

Hell I luv ya, really luv yaaa

Here we go
