Tonight, I feel like I'm lost in the desert But you're my oasis You found my heart Tonight, I feel like I'm lost in the desert But you're my oasis, yeah, you're my oasis

I am stuck in quicksand
And I am trying not to drown
Fell in deeper this time and I'm struggling to get out
And doubt creeps into my soul
And now, I've found there's nothing left to hold

Tonight, I feel like I'm lost in the desert But you're my oasis, yeah, you're my oasis

I thought I'd die
I had no fight, I had given up
Thought I was done, I was savaged by the sun
I thought I'd die
I had no fight, I had turned to dust
When I came to in your arms I knew I would make it through

Tonight, I feel like I'm lost in the desert But you're my oasis You found my heart Tonight I feel like I'm lost in the desert But you're my oasis, yeah, you're my oasis (You found my heart)
