Kygo

You just
You made it look easy
It's like you didn't feel it
Not like I do
I followed
I followed the pieces
I tried to receive it
To when it was good

Oh look, I don't wanna feel like somebody
While nothing else ever feels like your body
'Cause we held the world
We were turning it
For a moment there
It was permanent
I drive the streets
When you told me your secrets
We made mistakes
But we both didn't mean it
And we held the world
We were turning it
For a moment there
It was permanent

I'll bet
I'll bet you're in Seoul
Dancing in slow-mo
With someone new
I cared I...
I hope you'll never forget it
The night's just too weary
Like all your tattoos

Oh look, I don't wanna feel like somebody
While nothing else ever feels like your body
'Cause we held the world
We were turning it
For a moment there
It was permanent
I drive the streets
When you told me your secrets
We made mistakes
But we both didn't mean it
And we held the world
We were turning it
For a moment there
It was permanent

Permanent
Permanent
For a moment there
It was permanent
