

Get It

Kyla La Grange

Until the day she told me that I could be somebody
I was a show of the last thing
I'm like an ocean below, I know the violent sky by
IT WAS NOT RIGHT

Am I here again
And my heart is scarce
Am I here again

Am I here again
And you don't deserve this place
Am I here again

Onto an island we sail, broken and lost and so pale
It was like a gateway home
You shivered all night, your eyes were angry and bright
I COULD NOT FIGHT

Am I here again
And my heart is scarce
Am I here again

Am I here again
And you don't deserve this place
Am I here again

And it's not that hard to explain why you're cold in the middle now
And it's not that hard to open my eyes and close when they coul dn't love
AND IT'S NOT THAT HARD TO HIDE

Am I here again
And my heart is scarce
Am I here again

Am I here again
And you don't deserve this place
Am I here again
