

I Don't Want You To Go

Kyla

Here I am
Alone and I don't understand
Exactly how it all began
The dream just walked away

[Refrain]
I'm holding on
When all but the passion's gone

[Chorus]
And from the start
Maybe I was tryin' to hard
It's crazy coz it's breakin' my heart
Things can fall apart but I know,
That I don't want you to go

And heroes die,
When they ignore the cause inside
But they learn from what's left behind
And fight for something else

[Refrain]
And so it goes
That we have both learned how to grow

(Repeat Chorus)

[Bridge]
Oh it's just too much
Takin' all the whole world all by myself
But it's not enough
Unless I stop trusting somebody else,
Somebody else
And love again

[Instrumental Interlude]

And from the start
Maybe we were tryin' to hard
It's crazy coz it's breakin' our hearts
Things can fall apart but I know,
That I don't want you to go, no
Maybe we were tryin' to hard
It's crazy coz it's breakin' our hearts
Things can fall apart but I know,
Oh no, don't want you to go
