

Till They Take My Heart Away

Kyla

I look into your eyes, so far away
There's trouble in your mind
You're losing faith
Hey now, let me hold you
It'll be okay!
Coz i will love you
Till they take my heart away.

Remember when you called
And said goodbye
We thought we'd lost it all
And so did i
Even if i lost you
I would feel the same
Coz i will love you
Till they take my heart away.

Believe in me
I'm here to stay
I will love you
Till they take my heart away.

Now we're stronger than before
We've made it through
I never felt more sure
Because of you
Hey now! are you listening?
Do you hear me say
"i will love you
Till they take my heart away"
