

Song For Amanda

Kyle Riabko

Let's go back to my place, open up a bottle of wine
We can move it slow, yeah I know you like to take your time.

We'll let Miles Davis play us into the mood.
And if I'm lucky, I'll steal a kiss from you

And I need you to know..
If you want it, you can have it.
There'll be nothing more to say
when I take, when I take your breath away.

Let's gt on the couch, you can tell me all about your day
Yeah, let me rub your shoulders
gonna take that stress away
we'll you're absolutely gorgeous and I'm lost in the candle light
and I'd do anything to kiss those lips all night.

And I need you to know..
If you want it, you can have it.
There'll be nothing more to say
when I take, when I take your breath away.

We'll I'll lay you on the bed and be as sweet as I can I'll share the night with you we'll take off all our clothes and leave the world
alone
this is what I'd like to do
yeah, this is what I need to do

If you want it, you can have it.
There'll be nothing more to say
when I take, when I take.
If you want it, you can have it.
There'll be nothing more to say
when I take, when I take your breath away.
