

Not For You

Kylee

Knocked down unappreciated
Day is losing grip on the light
And everywhere I turn there is night

Locked out and confused I waited
I saw but never opened my eyes
Alone together blinded by lies

And I could never get through
Cos I was never with you

If I gave you the world would
It be enough for you
Not for you
If I tore out my heart and my mind
And wrapped them nicely
I can deal with the hurt and the blame
But not for you
Not for you
And I don't wanna stay
I can deal with the pain, but baby
Not for you

I kept all the focus and nerve
Was answering your every call
And making sure that we had it all

You reap what you sow and I burned
And love can be a devious snake
Imposing to be real when she's fake

And I could never reach you
Cos I was never with you

If I gave you the world would
It be enough for you
Not for you
If I tore out my heart and my mind
And wrapped them nicely
I can deal with the hurt and the blame
But not for you
Not for you
And I don't wanna stay
I can deal with the pain, but baby
Oh baby, not for you

Not for you
And I don't wanna stay
Not for you
If I gave you the world would it be enough for you
Not for you would it be enough for you
I am never enough for you

If I gave you the world would
It be enough for you
Not for you
If I tore out my heart and my mind

And wrapped them nicely
I can deal with the hurt and the blame
But not for you
Not for you
Not for you

Knocked down unappreciated
And everywhere I look there is night
