

Battle Cry

Kyler England

I gathered up all the sticks and stones
Built a wall to keep out the ghosts
But they walk through walls
And i'm trapped inside
Oh oh oh oh

Filled my lungs up with air
And hoped they'd carry me off like a hot balloon somewhere
But now i can't breathe
I'm still on the ground
Oh oh oh oh

Where there's shadow there is light
Love is in the battle cry
Even in the darkest night
There is shadow and there is light
Oh there is light

When your world falls apart
Every question opens up a new room in your heart
And now you get lost
Wandering the halls
Oh oh oh oh

Where there's shadow there is light
Love is in the battle cry
Even in the darkest night
There is shadow and there is light
Oh there is light

Hold your heart up to the fire
Walk across a razor wire
Even in the cruelest fight
Love is in the battle cry
