

Drunk

Kylie Minogue

I'm
Soffucated with desire,
I need to save me from Myself, I ache for great
Experience, there's a riot
In my senses

Time and space and hurt
And tears are not enough
Love and light and faith and
Words, are not enough,
I'm not happy drunk till
I'm drunken, till you take all
Of me, I'm not happy waste
Till I'm wasted, till you take
All of me

You put me to the test and
I understand, there's more
And more and more to know,
Don't take me halfway, I
Won't be contented that way

Time flies like my love for
You and space grows like
My envy for you, hurt comes
Like my pain for you and
Tears pour like my lust for
You, love lies like my hope
For you and light falls like
My amour for you, faith
Stays like my car for you
And words wait like my
Crave for you

I'm not happy drunk till
I'm drunken, till you take
All of me, I'm not happy
Waste till I'm wasted, till
You take all of me
