

I Don't Need Anyone

Kylie Minogue

I feel like speed
I feel like liquid
I give into you
I melt into you
I felt like nothing
I've said and done
I fall into you
I fall into you

I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for some one I've not found
I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for some one I've not found

Your signiture
Is on my hip
A kiss from you
Still on my lip
I am entire
I am finally one
But the the moment
Is long gone

I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for some one I've not found
I don't need anyone
Except for someone that I don't know
I don't need anyone
Except for some one I've not found
