

Someday

Kylie Minogue

Precious stone,
Life goes on,
You have abused and used me,
Now I'm going home,
I want my records back,
To get my heart on track,
You think I can't be alone,
Well this woman's here to show you, oh

Someday,
The lights will fall and you will know,
If you do it slowly,
You might just find it's worth it all

Precious stone,
Life goes on,
You feel used and abused,
Now you're all alone,
How dare you say,
I will be back one day,
You've taken me for granted,
It's time for me to say

Someday,
The lights will fall and you will know,
If you do it slowly,
You might just find it's worth it all

Someday he'll be there to hold you baby, There by the grace a sign,
Someday he'll be there to dry your tears,
Someday he'll be there to hold you baby, There by the grace a sign,
Someday he'll be there to dry your tears

Precious stone
Life goes on

I want my records back,
To get my heart on track,
You think I can't be alone,
Well this woman's here to show you, oh,
How dare you say,
I will be back one day,
You've taken me for granted,
You need to find your way

Someday,
The lights will fall and you will know,
If you do it slowly,
You might just find it's worth it all
