

Crystal Eyes

L.A. Guns

Crystal eyes she gazes
Like a desert flower in the morning rain
She's well aware of every promise made
She's a child of light in a world of pain

Ooh, let her be free
Oh, Holy Zion
Ooh, give us eyes to see
Something to rely on

Crystal eyes, I still love you
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyes

Crystal eyes, she don't say much
But you see right through your thin disguise
You never know she comes and goes
Slips through the veil of the dead of night

Ooh, let her be free
Oh, Holy Zion
Ooh, give us eyes to see
Something to rely on

Crystal eyes, I still love you, oh yeah
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyes

Crystal eyes, she's an angel
That fell to earth like a gift from God
Sweet, serene, skin like cream
My love protects your every thought

Ooh, let her be free
Oh, Holy Zion
Ooh, give us eyes to see
Something to rely on

Crystal eyes, I still love you, oh yeah
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyes

Crystal eyes, I still love you, oh yes, alright now
You are my one desire
Crystal eyes, I can't live without your touch
You're my crystal eyes

Ooh
Ooh
Crystal eyes
