L.A. Guns

In my hour of weakness
This hunger burns
Stand close, feel the energy
One stolen kiss is all I need
Is it hot in here
Or is it just me

Blind lead the blind
I can hear it all the time
Blind lead the blind
What the color of your second
Skin

Got the prettiest face we've ever seen
Dark angel eyes burn black as night
Skin soft as Chinese silk
Wrapped up so perfect for my delight

Blind lead the blind
I can hear it all the time
Blind lead the blind
What the color of your second
Skin

What's that picture of your face
Velvet touch we all embrace
Believe in you believe in me
All I need is what I see

Blind lead the blind
I can hear it all the time
Blind lead the blind
What the color of your second
Skin
