

Freak Magnet

L7

Liars, losers, coming at me
What I need is sanctuary
Minding my own business
Getting in my face
Violating my personal space
Freak magnet
Jerk appeal
Something about you
Is so not right
Nightmare, nightmare
In the daylight
Asking for my number
You wanna give me a call
But I've got your message
Written on the wall
Freak magnet
Jerk appeal
Always bugging me
Why don't you get a clue
'cause I don't want to Talk to you
I know that look in your eye
I've seen it before
I've given you all of my change
But you want something more
Freak magnet
Jerk appeal
