

Poetry In Motion

La Bouche

There's a whole lot of love in the world today, going around, i t'll come your way. The sun is back and it's gonna stay, everyb ody wants some love sometimes. (Poetry In Motion) There's the s ound and the feeling everywhere, reach out and fing love is in the air. The heart of the song is alive I swear, everybody need s some love sometimes.

Ain't it good now to feel this way, ain't it good to know, love is back and it's gonna stay, love will bring us home.
