

Dancing Queen

Laakso

I am a waste of time
If you ask me, if you ask me I'll tell you to be
Be gentle to yourself go find someone else
Be kind to yourself go find someone else
Sure I will hate myself when you find out that Someone else is better than me
And the hell I made you live

I've got my moments, I've got my moments,
I've got my moments when I'm less sober
I've got my moments, I've got my moments
I've got my moments when I am less aware of what I am, where I am
Less concerned about where you are
With who you are and why we are oh so apart

Your ex boyfriend turned out to be
A rock star wannabe a drug addict
You asked me to be honest with everything
I made promises, I broke promises
I messed up you, I fucked you up
Time after time I let you down
Time after, time after, time after time I let you down

My dancing queen
If you ask me, if you ask me, if you ask me I tell you to be
Be gentle to yourself go find someone else
Be kind to yourself go find someone else
Sure I will hate myself when you find out that someone else
Is better than me
And the hell I made you live

I've got my moments, I've got my moments,
I've got my moments when I'm less sober
I've got my moments when I am with my Da da da da da da dancing queen
