

Right Back At You

Laakso

You only call me when you need something from me
Like your name on a guestlist.
You only call me when you need something from me
Like a drink and a dinner.
You only tell me about the love of your life
And the kind of guys you're after.
You make sure that I know that I ain't your type
And that you'll never fall in love with me ever.

First I thought you had it all.
Now I know you needed love.
First I thought then I stopped.
First I thought you where too much.
Then I couldn't stay untouched.
First I thought then I stopped.

You ask me why, since when and how much
When I tell you that I love you.
You ask me why, since when and how come
When I tell you how much I need you.
You take a look around to see what you can find
To find out if you will ever be satisfied.
You make sure that I know that I ain't your type
And that you'll never fall in love with me ever.

First I thought

Loved her so much might love you more
But please could you be her just for a little while
Remind me of the times we had when love was all

First I thought
