

Midnight Resistance

Labyrinth

Staying behind the stars
I look at the world and I listen to reason ...
I hear an innocent voice, it whispers me a new law it whispers me the way and i'm sleeping with my dreams

Unholy love's my violation
a theological mistake
Everything went according to plan
you made the mistake to trust in me

Ride the sky one more time
ride the sky tonight

Look another way
Where moonlight takes the sky
I see the shadows of nighttime spinning around me ...
A mirage in the night
It's a magic for my heart a drop stolen from in the sea of Eternity

Unholy love's my violation
a theological mistake
Everything went according to plan
you made the mistake to trust in me

Ride the sky one more time
ride the sky tonight

I feel a new sensation when I close my eyes I'm dancing with the clouds I feel a new temptation run away with my mind chasing drops of moonlight ...

Unholy love's my violation
Everything went according to plan
you made the mistake to trust in me
