

Red Zone

Labyrinth

I've walked in the street of yesterday
I've walked with your eyes as blue as the sky

And we learned the hard way we wanted to live forever
everyone together

walking to red zone through the silence of night I've looked at the city of yesterday

And we've paid with our lives
we wanted to live forever
everyway together

I've broken everything we've made ...
... we wanted to live forever
everyway together
