

State Of Grace

Labyrinth

When it's late and stars go to sleep
I lie and wait for a new Dream

My State of Grace ...

When light fades everything 'round melts with shades in a Time-Escape

It's my world made for my Dreams
far away from my Fears and my Sins
and so alone I rest in peace and I finally feel a State of Grace It's my world so far away from the Pain that I need everyday

So many days without a smile I need to stay and rest for a while

In my world made of my Dreams
far away from my Fears and my Sins
and so alone I rest in peace
and I finally feel a State of Grace
It's my world so far away from the Pain that I feel everyday

It's my world made for my Dreams
far away from my Fears and my Sins
and so alone I rest in peace
and I finally feel a State of Grace
It's my world so far away
from the Pain that I need everyday
