

Gutter Sludge

Labyrinthe

This realm of pain will pave it's roads with all your flesh
Leaving the dead to drain
All the rest will liquify into a sludge
And breed with virgins as they sleep

Victimizing thoughts of hope beyond your self control
Leaving your eyes to rot, inside your fucking skull

The slime of all this sin has fucking covered me
Turning my hate against the church

Where the fuck is salvation?
This book is full of lies
I would rather raise _ the devil himself
And call out his fucking name

Rise from the depths of hell
Satan

I'd rather bathe in sin
Not live God's golden showers

To rule in Hell until the end
With an Iron fist
Fucking everything in sight

I Dove into Hell head first and hit the bottom

Swimming through sludge from the undead
This is my punishment
Punishment

Why could I not just fucking die
Why could I not just fucking die
Because Heaven does not exist
