

Her Occasion Of Sin

Lacrimas Profundere

If you get hurt just go and tell someone else
With every kiss you try to make me understand
All you are longing for is my loves bitter end
I might be wrong but think you're lying once again

Heal my wounds I can't bleed everything for you
I won't need you, never needed you
Heal my wounds I can't lose everything on you
I won't need you, never needed you

With everything weeping tear you think I'll be your friend
But why don't you crawl back into your lovers hands
There's nothing left for us I don't want you to stay
Don't try to chain me 'cause I'm leaving anyway
