

The End Is All I Can See

Lacuna Coil

I am just realizing
This pain is almost like salvation
Keeps coming back to me
Protects me from the voice of madness

Clean away my sins
'Cause I want to be with you
Now please answer my prayers
'Cause the end is all I can see

Twisting and turning anxiety moves in
Is coiling inside me, the evil within
Stinging and burning, consumes me with guilt
It plays with my senses then crawls out of me

Clean away my sins
'Cause I want to be with you
Now please answer my prayers
'Cause the end is all I can see

No one answered my prayers
There is nothing left here for me

Now you need to burn it down
Let's give it all an end
I'm caught inside a maze
I need to get out of this
Trapped inside
A prison in disguise
I keep running around in circles
Stuck on repeat again

Clean away my sins
'Cause I want to be with you
Now please answer my prayers
'Cause the end is all I can see

(Burn it down)
Clean away my sins
'Cause I want to be with you
(Down)
Now please answer my prayers
(Burn it down)
'Cause the end is all I can see
(Down)
